

Dear Supporter of Illiana Christian High School:

For the past few years, the Illiana Drama Department has been offering local businesses and supporters of Illiana the opportunity to place advertisements in the drama production playbills. Illiana’s Drama Department has been growing in student participation and in professionalism, producing shows that are attended by an average of 300 people per night. Illiana has become more well-known in the community for its great productions and the talent of the student actors. Last fall, the performance of The Comedy of Errors by William Shakespeare had huge crowds, as did the sell-out performances last spring of Oliver!. This fall, the Drama Department produced a fun-filled version of Charlotte’s Web based on the classic children’s book by E.B. White. Now we have begun plans for the spring musical, H.M.S. Pinafore. We are so excited to do a revival of this favorite Illiana show – and hope to see a number of alumni who performed in the show in the past come back to see our new version!

As this program has developed in professionalism and talent, so have the production playbills, which have been expanded to include cast biographies and pictures, scene explanations, fun activities, and patron support. Once again this spring, we are offering full-page, ½ page, and ¼ page advertising spaces, and we hope that your business can be a part of this playbill! Space is limited to 8 pages of advertising, so it is on a first-come, first-served basis.
